

Event Proposal Submission Questions

Before submitting your proposal, please confirm the following:

Copyediting (Required)

- I/we used copyediting tools to prepare an accurate proposal free of grammatical and typographical errors, such as using Grammarly to edit for correctness, clarity, engagement, delivery, and style.

Permission to Submit (Required)

- I consent to have my proposal reviewed. For multi-contributor proposals, I have received permission to submit this proposal on behalf of all contributors and have shared a final copy with them.

Profiles (Required)

- All contributors in this application, including myself, created a free account on EducationLaw.org and a genuine profile.

Blind Proposal (Required)

- The proposal does not include any identifying information that would compromise the double-blind peer-review process.

Title (Required)

Add a concise proposal title (e.g., Academic Freedom in Higher Education) or, if needed, a subtitle (e.g., Academic Freedom: A Legal Handbook for Higher Education Administrators).

Abstract (Required)

Please provide a 100- to 250-word summary of the proposal. The abstract will be used in publications, event brochures, and marketing. If your proposal is an award nomination, please provide a headline summary of your justification to be included in press releases if awarded.

Keywords (Required)

Separate each word or phrase with a comma. Keywords will be used in web searches, indexes, and event tags.

Correspondent (Required)

Search and add your name. As the corresponding contributor, you agree to receive and respond to the editor's inquiries. Your name will be hidden during the blind peer-review process.

Contributor(s) (Required)

For event proposals, only list presenters that will be registered for the conference. Search and add all contributors' names, including you, as the correspondent. Add the names in the order you want to be listed in the event program or publication. This information will be hidden during the blind peer-review process.
